THE CHAUTAUQUA'S JUNIOR FESTIVAL

At four o'clock next Thursday afternoon the Chautauqua's Junior tent will go up. At seven o'clock the children's play festival will begin. It is free to all the boys and girls of this community.

The Junior Director will open the festival with a demonstration in musical appreciation, enabling the children to make their start in acquiring the art of listening to music. Then will come singing with the Victrola, followed by rhythmic exercises with colored paper balls. Folks dances come next. There will also be boys' relay races and a hunt for three Junior season tickets.

The full course in musical appreciation, for which Junior Chautauqua season tickets are required, is based on a new method, one of whose leading principles prescribes the avoidance of difficult and mysterious terms. The new method assumes that in speaking of music, just as in speaking of other things, the director may use simple language readily understood. By way of showing how attractive learning to enjoy music really is, we give the titles of eight lessons:

1. What's on the inside of music.

2. Music is a Language: What Does it Say to You?

3. Making Friends with Tunes.

4. How Do You Do, Mr. Instrument?

5. Songs and Singers.

6. Instrumental Music.

7. Music of the Far-Away Countries.

8. "Beautiful America."

Miss Jalette Griffin and others who had been up the river on a fishing trip passed here Friday. We failed to get the names of the others who were in the crowd. When you are in our town let us know it will be a special favor to us to find out who you are where you are going as the Signal and myself like to know these things.

The revival meeting held at the Christian church for the past two weeks conducted by Rev. Dunn of Louisville assisted by Rev. L. N. Bowling of Brodhead closed last Saturday night with 40 additions. Rev. Dunn is a good speaker and can explain the bible until a child can understand. Rev. Bowling handled the singing which he is well qualified to do. Large crowds attended almost every night and much good was accomplished.

Another killing occurred in our country last week when Calvin Barnes was killed by Kirby and we understand that whiskey was directly or indirectly the cause. How long, oh how long will this poisonous stuff be made, the worst enemy that man can have on earth. We truly hope that Judge Kennedy and all the officers will still make the fight on moonshine and bootleggers harder and harder until not one will be left in the country. We can see in the last twelve months a great improvement, let the good work go on and when the last drop has been banished from the earth Satan will about be out of a job, he can bank his fires, hang crepe on the gates of torment and hang out the sign, "Hell for Rent".

Deputy Sheriffs Mink and Anglin was in the city Saturday.

R. L. Nattingly is in Lexington this week having dental work done.

J. E. Woodall, a salesman of London was here Tuesday asking hands with our merchants.

R. H. Hamm (better known as Tede) the hustling flour salesman of Brodhead was here Monday.

Now we have a bus line between this place and Mt. Vernon making two trips daily. What will be the next improvement on docket.

The Bridge iron for the bridge at Parkers creek across Rockcastle river that was shipped here has been hauled there and it will not be long until that one is completed.

The following Brodhead people attended church here last Thursday evening: Mrs. James De Vault, Mrs. Virgil Martin, Mrs. Richard Martin, Miss Sally Brooks and a Mrs. Long.

But while the enjoyment of music is thus brought within the grasp of boys and girls, it is the same enjoyment of music that adults require. They, as well as the children, will value the lessons and it is hoped that many adults will prepare to enter the culminating memory contest, whose object will be to see who can successfully give the names and composers of twelve musical masterpieces played on the afternoon of the contest. The evening blue ribbon prizes will be awarded to those who have correctly named the selections and their composers.

Next Thursday's Junior play festival will not only serve as an introduction to the course in musical appreciation but will at the same time give the boys and girls a chance to take formal possession of their tent. Throughout the Chautauqua session it is to be theirs. The boys will put it up. The boys will keep it in order.

The Junior tent is made of khaki similar to the big Chautauqua tent and has a fence surrounding it. These Junior tents used this year by White & Myers Chautauqua System in their Junior work, are the first Junior tents ever used in Chautauqua. They should add greatly to the pleasure of the youngsters.

RECOMMENDS "CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS"

"Chamberlain's Tablets have been used by my husband and myself on an on for the past five years. When my husband goes away from home he always takes a bottle of them along with him. Whenever I have that heavy feeling after eating, or feel dull and played out, I take one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets and they fix me up fine, writes Mrs. Newton Vreeland, Minna, N. Y. Takes these tablets when troubled with constipation or indigestion and they will do you good.

BOHUMIR KRYL AND HIS BAND

Everybody knows of Bohumir Kryl and his Band, who are heralded as the greatest attraction appearing on Chautauqua. Mr. Kryl, often styled the greatest cornetist in the world, is today ranked as one of the five great bandmasters of the world. Kryl and his Band have given concerts in nearly all the great cities of America. They have made many Victor records. We are happy in announcing Kryl and his Band for one day's program on our Chautauqua with full concerts both afternoon and night. Only the finest Chautauquas could afford to have such a magnificent attraction. We are sure everybody will be looking forward to their concerts with keen anticipation, and that the size of the crowd to hear them will be in keeping with the bigness of the attraction.

Will of the Royal Clan of Clief Apes

We the members of the Clief Ape Clan, being of sane mind and having reached the end of our first camping trip of the season of 1922, do hereby will and bequeath the use of the Royal Den to our successors, The Less Royal P. P.'s for four days only, at the expiration of said period of time the key to the Royal Den must be given to our chief, "Tarzan of the Apes".

Personal properties and attainments of the Clief Apes are bequeathed as follows:

Item I. "Blondie" Ape bequeaths her love for the water to Daisy provided she stays in the water two-thirds of the time with weights on her feet and wings around her neck.

Item II. The "Missing Links" gift for singing is given to Floyd on condition that he sing the so bestows upon Derby keys and care of the Royal Den, who must remodel, if necessary, the stove and other furniture belonging to said property.

Item VIII. To Mabel, "Tybee" bequeaths her love for roving and capacity for converting "The wisdom of the forest" into nourishment for other members of the Clief Ape Clan. She must see that the Clief Ape Clan is well nourished at least two meals each day.

Item IX. The "Giant Apes" willingness to lend his ready assistance and protective power is bequeathed to Bob provided he cut the necessary 71 cords per night, and ever keep in readiness the battle ax.

Item X. "Wonder" Ape will ingly bestows the fluent use of her biceps to Jalette on condition that she spend three hours of the waking day and two hours of the sleeping day in the southwest corner of the tent, Nokomis in extinguishing said tent of in-given unlimited space for play and all the shallow water for fishing on condition that they are unmolested by the elder members.

Item XVI. To an unknown member we joyfully bequeath our own "Missing Links" love of theft provided the same must hide all stolen property in his suit case.

Item XVII. Having no further use for his Herculean strength Tarzan wills to all an equal share of above mentioned physical power, on condition that each in his turn carries the "Racing Shark" from Livingston to the riverside.

To you, female members of the Less Royal P. P.'s we with sad regrets on Sunday June 4th turn over the faithful tent Nokomis and its use, for four days, also the use of each piece of furniture, especially the inexpensive mahogany dressing table, provided it is neither scarred nor left to the exposure of the sky.

On entering the kitchen behold the trustworthy Hirschvogel the masterpiece of Tarzan, and remember that for every piece of clay lost another must immediately take its place or you suffer the curse of the Royal Clan of Clief Apes. Our less majestic kitchen-servant requires the most careful attention of each P. P. and must be well protected from dampness of atmosphere as well as from the movements of the artful dishwashers.

This fair warning we give to all, keep backs bent at an angle of 45 degrees from time of entering the kitchen until departure from same.

Moreover male members of the Less Royal P. P.'s we with sad regrets, bestow to your careful keeping, the inhabitants of the Golden River, the Royal Beech and the Magic Swing. Also space in one corner of the kitchen for your cots in case the skys see fit to shed tears upon you, or the atmosphere prove too frigid for your temperate bodies.

With all solemnity and due respect to the finders we bequeath two towels, one bathin, shoe, one cap, two cakes of soap, one sock, two forks, one flash light, thirty seven frog backs and one mess kit which find their present resting place in the bottom of the Golden River.

MEET SQUIRE SIGMON and THE BOYS.

Monday morning bright and early, on top of the Levisay tunnel near town, with your tear-scrappers, picks, shovels, and other road making tools, and help them build a new grade around the hill from top of tunnel to the low gap between the Levisay farms on the Somerset road. Squire Sigmon and the boys have been doing some fine work out that way for a few weeks and if the folks who are interested will assist them a little this coming week this change can be made and the road put on a good grade and taken off the rocks.

SERVANT GIRL WOULDN'T GO IN CELLAR, FEARING RATS.

Mrs. Tepper, Plainfield, N. J. says, "Rats were so bad in our cellar the servant girl wouldn't go there. Bought some RAT-SNAP and it cleaned all the rats out." RAT-SNAP destroys rats and mice. WHY SUFFER FROM RHEUMATISM?

Do you know that nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles or chronic rheumatism, neither of which require any internal treatment. The pain may be relieved by applying Chamberlain's Liniment, which makes sleep and rest possible, and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism.

Does John Know?

John Wanaker, the great merchant, says: "No boy ever became great as a man, who did not in his youth learn the saving habit."

Experience has taught some of us that John knew what he was talking about. Do you think so, too? Are you teaching your children the lesson of thrift that will make them self-reliant men and women? A little savings account at our Bank for your boy or girl will prove a big incentive. We will open an account, no matter how small, and will help you educate your children in the matter of thrift and modern business methods.

ONTARIO INDIANS ON A TREK

Plan To Set Up Camps At Point Pelee, Claimed As Their Ancestors' Land

Windsor, Ont.—A band of 50 Potawatomi Indians revealed the Government park area at Point Pelee, on Lake Erie, prepared to press their claim to land they declare was given to their ancestors by the British Government in payment for military service given at the beginning of the eighteenth century. Several hundred other members of the tribe are expected to reach Point Pelee later. The chief of the tribe, who calls himself "John Lodge," told a park official it was planned to enter the park when the entire band arrived, and set up an encampment as a means of enforcing the claim.

This program, however, has been prohibited by officials at Ottawa and Royal Canadian Mounted Police placed in the park to prevent the "invasion." So far as the officials had learned the Indians were unarmed and no disorder was anticipated.

Chief Lodge said the Indians would have a pow-wow when their fellow tribesmen arrived, and added that he desired the presence of the Dominion Minister of Interior and the Superintendent of Indian Affairs.

House Plans Recession

Washington—Although Congress is not expected to adjourn until early autumn members of the House are figuring on completing their work far in advance of that date, that they may be able to escape the hot Washington weather, and more important to them, look after political affairs in their home districts. It became known that the House is planning to begin a series of three-day recesses July 4, continuing them until the Senate completes its work.

Use For Corn Cobs

Washington—Research work by chemists of the Department of Agriculture, extending over a period of more than six years, has resulted in the production from corn cobs of low-priced substitutes for a wide variety of hard rubber and synthetic resin products, as well as a possible new motor fuel supply, according to an announcement by the department. The discovery, it was declared, would provide a good market for waste farm by-products.

Now, Hindy!

Berlin.—The reception accorded to Field Marshal Hindenburg by the civil and military student bodies on the occasion of his present visit to the battle fields of East Prussia, which provoked a counter demonstration by Communists at Koenigsberg and a subsequent sanguinary clash between troops and civilians, probably will cause the Government to make a polite, firm request that the Field Marshal abstain from further excursions of this nature.

Finds Washington Painting

Lexington, Va.—Arthur Dawson, of local portrait painter of the United States Military Academy, announced he had found at Washington and Lee University here an original painting of George Washington, by Gilbert Stuart. The painting is estimated by art experts to be worth from $75,000 to $100,000.
